ABOUT CULTUVUE

(formerly rePresent Photography Exhibition)

For the past 2 years, Cultuvue by Kenneth Grant Inzpirations has already successfully organized and curated approximately 200 portraits and works of art. Cultuvue is a photography exhibition of artistic, creative expression of black culture, utilizing photographic, interactive, and educational components. Our mission is to create a better cultural understanding for the masses through the lens of the local community and to show the youth that there are no limitations to what can be.

PROPOSED PLAN

Kenneth Grant Inzpirations has planned Cultuvue 2023 at our Daytona location, from January 16th - February 26th, and at the Yvonne Scarlett Golden Center, from January 5th - April 30th.

This comes in reply to the amazing response from over thirty two hundrend 2022 exhibition attendees. Both venues are near to other counties, including Flagler, Brevard, Seminole, and Orange, who have proven to be willing to travel from their counties to come and see the exhibition.

REVIEWS FROM PREVIOUS SPONSORS

We were one of the sponsors of the second rePresent Photography Exhibition curated by Kenneth Grant Inzpirations. To tell the truth, we were sort of skeptical at first. However, the day we went for the final inspection of the venue, arrangements etc, we were blown away.

To this date, we are a constant sponsor of the now Cultuvue Photography Exhibition and the arrangements just keep getting better.
